

A large tracing exercise consisting of a continuous path that starts at the scooter, goes right, turns down, goes left, turns up, goes right, turns down, goes left, turns up, goes right, and finally turns down to end at the house. The path is defined by solid outer lines and a dashed inner line for tracing.